Course Outline	Korea, China and Japan, which are center of East Asia, have formed their own history, while they have also formed East Asian history making interrelation continuously. Korea, China and Japan are not isolated but mutual connected. In this course, thus, we will look at East Asian modern history which was dynamically unfolded, such as opening a port, the Chinese-Japanese War, the Pacific War, and establishment of People's Republic of China, in the view of interconnection between countries. Plus through this, we will try to understand the direction which East Asia should move forward in 21st century.
Class Guide Objective	- Every week, classes are face to face - Students who do not take either the mid-term or final exam will be failed. (Both exams are mandatory.)
