

COURSE // ang2156 Syntax I*Course description —

- Cycle : 1
- Course type : Lecture
- Number of credits : 3
- Subject : English

Goals

This course is designed for Intermediate I students who wish to improve their understanding of English sentence structure. It explores basic English syntax and familiarizes students with syntactic elements and their interaction within a sentence. Classroom activities introduce fundamental concepts of syntactic and morphological analysis to enhance reading comprehension and written English production. The course examines the relationship between sentence structure and meaning, with a particular focus on ambiguity. By the end of this course, students will be able to analyze, interpret, and produce simple sentence structures.

Teaching method interaction within a sentence. Classroom activities introduce fundamental concepts of syntactic and morphological analysis to enhance reading comprehension and written English production. The course examines the relationship between sentence structure and meaning, with a particular focus on ambiguity. By the end of this course, students will be able to analyze, interpret, and produce simple sentence structures.

Teaching method

This course incorporates digital technologies for the completion of certain activities and assignments.

Access conditions

According to the results of the Language School's placement test.

Programs associated with this course

- Certificate in English
- Undergraduate concentration in English
- Major in Modern Languages and Cultures
- Undergraduate Microprogram in English

Schedule - Summer 2026

Schedule - Fall 2026

Schedule - Winter 2027

Seek

ANG2156 - Syntax I

Group 040

Teacher ■ Not available

Time and location

This course is taught in person.

Day	Date	Hour
THURSDAY	From September 8, 2026 to December 21, 2026	From 9:30

Noticed ■ Mandatory placement test:
langues.uqam.ca